DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 12 and 18 – 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the case of claim 12, language “each of the concentric circles in the pattern” is vague and indefinite since the antecedent language does not define the acoustic signal or how it is scanned such that there is a disjuncture in the quoted language since it presupposes that the acoustic signal is a set of signals with some degree of distributional regularity such that and expansion to neighboring circles in a pattern may occur.

In the case of claim 18, a syntax error is present in line last insofar as “ an original neighbor concentric circles” ambivalently refers to the singular or the plural.

Dependent claims variously inherit the defect.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 3, 7 – 11 and 13 – 17 are allowed.

Claims 12 and 18 and claims dependent upon the latter would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Art Unit: 3768

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
